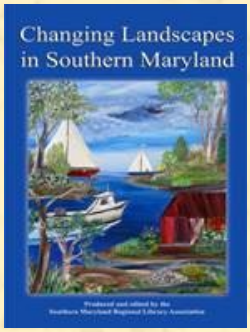
Local History Series

Experience Calvert County's rich heritage through Calvert Library's series of local history programs, inspired by books by local authors and organizations.

All programs are 7:00 - 8:30 pm at Calvert Library, Prince Frederick

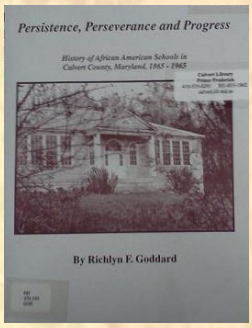
Tuesday, January 10



Changing Landscapes in Southern Maryland

Participants will share their experience creating this book of oral histories, and the Historic District Commission will premiere its DVD of driving tours through Calvert County's historic landscapes.

Tuesday, February 28



Persistence, Perseverance and Progress

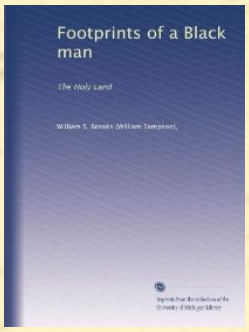
Author Dr. Richlyn E. Goddard and other local contributors to this book will lead a discussion about the history of African American schools and education in Calvert County .

Tuesday, March 13

The War of 1812 in the Chesapeake

Local author and noted War of 1812 historian Dr. Ralph Eshelman will share his vast knowledge of the war's many battlefields and other significant sites found throughout the Chesapeake Bay region.

Tuesday, April 10



Footprints of a Black Man: The Holy Land

The WS Brooks All Class Committee will offer a look into author William S. Brooks' life and travels, and a past recipient of the Committee's scholarship will share about being selected for that honor.

Calvert Library programs are accessible to individuals with disabilities. For special needs, please call 410-535-0291 or 301-855-1862.

Calvert LIBRARY
imagination • information • inspiration